What Is A Family??

What is a family? The accident of birth gives us our relationships with our parents, brothers, sisters, and other relatives. But perhaps, in a larger sense, a family unit is made up of any people who affect our lives in a special way. As Dr. Hytche reminded us of our greatness, we need to remember that at UMES, "We are a family!"

As are families, so is society. If well ordered, well instructed, and well governed, they are the springs from which go forth the streams of national greatness and prosperity-of civil order and public happiness.

William Makepeace Thayer

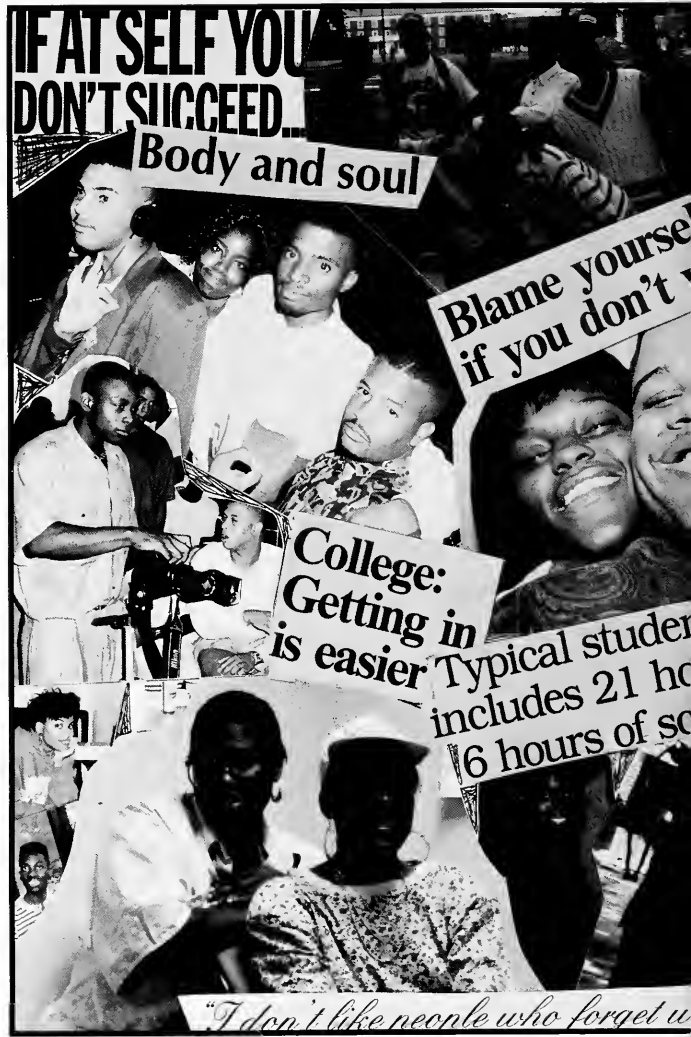

The feeling of caring and concern that "comes across" at UMES is a quality that impresses those who work, study, and visit here. Our small campus puts us in contact with the same people in class, organizational meetings, and team practices. We become close. "We become more than just classmates. We become members of a "family."

The greatest thing in family life is to take a hint when a hint is intended-and not to take a hint when a hint isn't intended.

Robert Lee Frost

Like all families we have our troubles. We carry our problems from class to class. We have to study with, compete with, and work with people we may not like. But problems can be solved. This is the best part of being small and close. We will learn to accept and understand. We will gain a sense of humor. We will recognize that "WE ARE FAMILY!"

Freshmen

The anticipation to be accepted in to a college is one of the most exciting moments in a lifetime. But to move in a Residence hall and be/come a real Freshmen student is perhaps, the scariest. Will I be accepted by my peers? Is the school really like the brochure? Will I like my classes? Will my family be able to pay my tuition?

Once you get to know the family of UMES, you will realize that your worries as a Freshmen were in vain. Not only will the UMES family love you as a freshmen, but they will guide, nurture, and protect you from all dangers. They will warn you to stay away from Dudis' Math 111 class. They will urge you to take Ms. Smith's Health class. They will tell you to take your roommate problems to Dean Tilghman or Ms. Oliphant. They will tell you to stop by the Resource Center for a tutor. They will tell you that UMES won't put you out for missing that deferment payment.

UMES will tell you that being a "Hawk" is being a part of a family.

Okay Mom & Dad, it's time for you to go home. You're starting to be embarrassing. People are taking pictures!

Orientation

Future singers, Ms. Rae-chelle, Ms. Stacey, Ms. Erika, and Ms. Susan sing with fervor that Old UMES spiritual, "I'm So Glad I Go To UMES". But as Freshmen, they sing, "I'm so Glad I came to UMES". Not only did their harmony send chills up and down the spines of many, but the audience yelled for an encore. And the UMES family shouted as the spirit filled the room.

The Professional staff of General Curriculum and of the Counseling Center assist students in Registration for fall.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Slave Auction

Wayne & Will Brown start the bidding in the $2's and end up capturing a lovely group of females and $26.95.

On September 26th, the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity held their 12th annual Slave Auction. The Administration requested the name of the event be changed or face the cancellation of the event. The Sigma's rallied the Student Body and collected over 600 signatures on a petition.

President, Terry Smith said, "Censorship is a blot on the Univ. of Maryland Eastern Shore Campus."

The Slave Auction did go on. Blue-Phi!!!!

Can we start the bidding at ¢.50 cents? Alright, how about ¢.75 cents? Finally AD (Allen Davenport) purchased these ladies. Why?

Career Day

The Career Planning and Placement Office assists students with their career plans, career options, in-school experience opportunities, and professional programs. The Office has a library of career information, a professional testing service (SAT, GRE), a recruitment service, a newsletter, a cooperative education program, and offers a variety of career-related workshops. Recruiters from all over the world come to UMES including: The Gap, Air Products, Perdue Farms, Inc., Bello Machre, U.S. Government Printing Office, Pepsi Cola Corp. and many more.

Myra and the Census Bureau discuss future job opportunities. Will the salary be right?

Senior, Sean Meredith inquires about Admission and Tuition for Penn State Graduate School.

Elections!

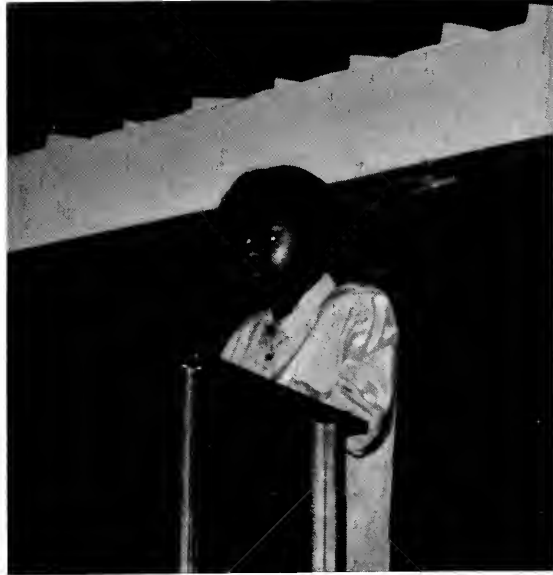

The 1990-91 Election was one to speak about. There were over half a dozen females running for; Ms. Freshmen, four for President, and one for Mr. Freshmen. Yet, the Junior Class had to revote three times for their Ms. Junior. And the Senior Class officers went unopposed.

The UMES family casted their ballots to decide who would represent their classes in the political decisions of the student body.

At the end of the year many students were upset with their presidents, Queens, and executive boards who decided that sleeping was more important than leading.

Miss UMES, Teresa Jones proctors the underclassmen speeches for offices.

Miss Freshmen, Karen Owens gives a heart-warming speech. But ends up being all talk and no action.

1990 Ebony Fashion Fair

Andrea Carter, Baltimore models a revealing lace outfit.

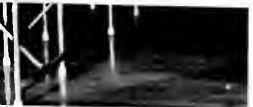

... on stage is the brilliance of color, dazzle and motion from curtain to finale! With a backdrop of graphic art and synthesized music, a fashionably-clad, svelte lady ascends the majestic throne to direct 100 minutes of synco-pated fashion excitement. Once those gorgeous leggy models swing into the spotlight, it's non-stop movement of marvelous swirling silks, cheffons and furs! Color explosion of intense oranges, glowing reds, acid reds, acid greens and jewel tones made strong statements. A fashion mania - colorful, sporty, dressy and body-revealing personified.

FAIL PLAY - "WHAT THE WINE SELLERS BUYS"

What the Wine-Sellers Buy, a three-act play built around the classic battle of good versus evil, was about a 17-year-old boy's struggle to get ahead. Steve Carlton, played by Chris Pagan has to decide whether to follow the "teachings" of the pimp/hustler Rico (played by Ken Mitchell-Phillips) or be the "good boy" that his mother tried to raise him to be. Through the course of the play Steve-following Rico's example- gets into drinking, smoking, marijuana, gambling, unknowingly dropping off drugs, and even attempting to pimp his girlfriend Mae (played by both Stacey Watson and Ena Evans).

While all this is going on Mrs. Carlton and her companion played by Rhonda Wainwright and Kenneth Green do their best to influence Steve to do what is right. The only thing that saves Steve is a near overdose of drugs.

THE DIRECTOR - Dr Della Dameron-Johnson - Missouri native; attended Lincoln University in Missouri where she received her Bachelor of Science in Education in Speech and Drama and then earned a Master of Arts in Theater at Northern Illinois University. She received her doctorate degree from College Park. She has excelled in the role of drama coach and director with such credits as "The Wiz", "Purlie", "Ain't Misbehavin'", "Arsenic & Old Lace", "A Raisin in the Sun", "Celebration '86: A Centennial Musical Revue", "Let Us Entertain You", "Salute to America", "Zooman and the Sign", and many more. Dr. Dameron-Johnson has been directing 16 years, of which 14 have been here with the UMES family.

Cast List - Steve Carlton - Chris Pagan; Mae Harris - Stacey Watson; Mrs. Carlton - Rhonda Wainwright; Mrs. Harris - Shaynisa Polk; Joe - Eric Brown; Rico - Ken Mitchell-Phillips; Hustler - Shannon Washington; Jim Aaron - Kenneth Green; Old Bob - Michael Dabbs; Melvin - Carlton Carter; White Cop - Paul Bolen; Black Cop - Sean Salisbury; George - Marshall Toney; Coach - Ed Batton; Mrs. Copeland - Crystal Dunn; Man1 - Gerald Austin; Man2 - David Hurlock; Old Lady - Necol Brown; Candy - Lisa James; Make-up Felicia Alexander; Marilyn - Vikki Hankerson; Girl1 - Leslie Thompson; Girl2 - Carnatio Wooten; Cab Driver - David Hurlock; Cheerleaders - Vicky Ragin, Carnation Wooten, Imeh Smith; Basketball Players - Darrell Griffith, Dana Rice, Melvin Johnakin; Student Asst. Director - Roxanne Young, Sharon Fisher; Technical Director - Keith Gardner; Set Construction Advisor - Ronnie Spencer; Prop Crew Heads - Monique & Nurjhan Johnson; Hair Stylist - Shelly White;

A & E

The SGA decided to not only have outside acts to entertain the Alumnus and students, but to promote some of our own talented students. So the SGA decided to hire as the pre-show entertainment, A & E (B.K.A. Antoine Powell & Subramania-pillei Teal - Sputnik) Their rap music softened by lyrics and melodious ballads gave the homecoming show that special family touch. A & E definitely were ranked along the side of Milira and Gerald Alston. Their posse consists of the DJ Kevin and Dancers: Jamir and William.

Milira goes out in the audience. As she touches people, hearts are moved; things ain't what they used to be, no.

Milira Jones

Milira is puzzled during the sound check. "The music just doesn't sound right. 'Goooo outside', That's good"

The sound is right. The music is right. And Milira scats on one of her hits. - Do be bop - shoo dee be bop !

Milira steps off stage to get the audience involved in her phenomenal show. She requested many audience members to sing with her in the remake of Marvin Gaye's, "Mercy, Mercy Me!"

"Who can help me get outside in the rain. I don't want nobody to see me crying.", sing Ms. Jones.

Mercy, Mercy Me !

And the winner is . . . Milira Jones! That was the announcement one hot summer night at the famed Apollo Theatre Amateur Night two years ago when a stunning Manhattan-born teenager with a powerful voice swept the audience away. That triumph eventually led to Milira being signed as the first artist for the brand-new Apollo Theatre Records label, which Motown distributes. Milira has won fans with her versatile voice-she handles rhythm and blues, pop, jazz and gospel with equal ease. On her first, self-titled album, she also pays tribute to Motown great Marvin Gaye with her own stirring rendition of "Mercy, Mercy Me." A professional backup gospel singer since she was 11, Jones is a dynamo we'll be seeing and hearing lots from for years to come.

Milira gave 100% as the opening act for the '91 Homecoming Concert. "Sing girl, Sing!"

She has a voice as rich as Fort Knox and as lasting as the stars. She is songstress extraordinaire, Ms. Milira Jones!!!!

Gerald Alston

Gerald Alston, former member of the Manhattans graced us with his presence and sultry music. Along with his backup singers, "Shades of Color", Mr. Alston entertained UMES with ballads that kept the UMES family wanting. Gerald Alston kept UMES in "Slow Motion" during his performance.

As the main performer, Gerald Alston brought back memories of old times, sad times, lost loves, and great times!

Jazz Band Family

Under the direction of Mr. John Lampkin, Jazz Band Director and Trumpeter, the Jazz Band not only presents beautiful, appealing, and sultry music; but they also perform the classiest jazz music on the Eastern Shore. The Jazz Band Family continually strives for excellence.

4 year Jazz Band member and Senior, Orin Gillian dazzles the audience with his command of the sax.

For the first time in the UMES history, the Jazz Band and Gospel Choir combined and performed "Something Inside So Strong!" by Vanessa Bell Armstrong. Gospel Choir Director, Ms. Sheila McDonald said, "It was fantastic !!!".

S.A.B. All Nighter

The S.A.B. All Nighter has had a history of lasting all night. But for the first time, the administration said they didn't have the funds to pay the police to monitor this function. So therefore, for the first time, the S.A.B. All Nighter ended at 2 a.m. like any regular party. But the S.A.B. still succeeded in making the all nighter different than any other party at UMES.

The S.A.B. All Nighter may not have lasted all night, but all night it was jumping. With alcoholic drinks on the second floor, Win, Lose or Draw, a Movie room, a Game Room, and a social room, the second floor became the hot spot of the SDC. Joe Huggins and Darryl Debreast became the favorite bartenders, really the only bartenders for the night. Ben Pitts, Jaz, and Danny made original New York hot dogs. Really they put on tomatoe sauce and called them New York! Now really Danny! You could even find students in the SDC dancing till they dropped!

Kevin Mack, the University Disc Jockey cut records like Marriot makes French toast! Mikko Carelock danced so hard he lost 5 pounds! And Veda Teegele partied so hard she lost her Princess Anne accent! The S.A.B. All Nighter did not last all night, but it will last in the minds of a many UMES student!

Scandals II - "The Musical"

Roger W. Davis and Charrisse D. Nelson joined forces to bring a rocketing performance to UMES that touched the hearts of the UMES family.

William Showell, Jr. gave a very convincing performance as Bill Tilghman, a janitor. Tilghman recalls a story about Cheryl Johnson whose picture hangs on his wall.

Mrs. Rev. Big John (Karen Johnson) urges Sister Bertha (Rochelle Smallwood) to go on and shout! Praise the Lord!

Big Daddy (H. Daniel Joseph) realizes his mistakes and proposes to Cheryl.

Starring Ms. Charrisse D. Nelson

As Roger Davis, a University of Maryland Eastern Shore senior English major from Baltimore, reflects on the quality of acts that have drawn spectators to the Ella Fitzgerald Center of late, he knows he has some tough acts to follow with his upcoming production Scandals II: The Musical. His drama immediately follows What the Wine-Sellers Buy by the drama society; the Miss UMES Coronation, and a poetry presentation by poet Gwendolyn Brooks. All of those acts packed the 1,200-seat Center. But so has Roger Davis. So for a yardstick, Davis needs to look only at the Scandals premiere of 1989. And to guarantee himself success, he need only pull off the vitality and scope for which his colleagues have come to respect him. By Frank White - - -

Phi Alpha Beta (PAB's) pledges are practicing their greeting for Most Gracious Pab Sister (Sonya Brown).

Dr. Tanks (Lisa James) tells Cheryl Johnson that Cheryl's cheating and absenteeism will not be tolerated and will get her on the F roll. She urges Cheryl to drop the class before she gets the grade she deserves.

The Place To Be

A black and white photograph of a brick wall. The bricks are arranged in a traditional running bond pattern. The mortar joints are visible and slightly recessed. The lighting creates shadows that emphasize the texture of the bricks. A white rectangular box is superimposed over the upper portion of the wall, containing the word 'FACULTY' in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The letters are thick and have a slightly irregular, hand-drawn appearance.

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

Unlike other major Black fraternities and sororities, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was founded in the Midwest. The fraternity was organized in 1911 at Indiana University to foster individual and group excellence. Since its founding, more than 82,000 members have been initiated into 331 undergraduate and 319 alumni chapters located throughout the U.S. with foreign chapters in the United Kingdom, Korea, Japan, Germany, and the Bahamas.

"Guide Right" is the guiding theme of the fraternity. Chapters all over the world provide guidance and counseling, give scholarships, arrange student loans, assist the poor, work in political campaigns and support anti-apartheid activities.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded on January 13, 1913 at Howard University in Washington, D.C. Being the largest sorority, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has over 175,000 members worldwide. The Delta's established a scholarship, tuition loan fund, a nationwide voter registration drive and a Social Action Commission to support the Civil Rights bills.

Famous Delta's include former congress women Barbara Jordan and Shirley Chisholm, cabinet member and ambassador Patricia Roberts Harris, journalist Charlayne Hunter Gault, poet Nikki Giovanni, opera star Leontyne Price, singers Roberta Flack and Natalie Cole.

Delta Sigma Theta has worked on local, regional and national levels to help serve mankind, while promoting scholarship and leadership.

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc was founded at Howard University on November 17, 1911. Their founding fathers were Ernest Everette Just, Edgar Amos Love, Professor Frank Coleman, and Oscar James Cooper.

Their theme is to promote manhood, scholarship, perserverance and uplift. Famous Que's include Bill Cosby, Jesse Jackson, Vernon Jordan, Benjamin Hooks, Former Mayor Wilson Goode, Carter G. Woodson, Langston Hughes, Count Basie, and Marvin Gaye. Nationally they support the NAACP, National High School Essay Contest, and Social Action Program.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

When Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was created on the campus of Howard University in 1920, It was little more than a "social club". Originally formed because Black women were not allowed to join most White sororities and because the Phi Beta Sigma chapter needed a sister organization, Zeta Phi Beta made campus life complete for its female students. But none of the five founders — Myrtle Faithful, Fannie Pettie Watts, Viola Tyler Goings, Pearl Neal and Arizona Cleaver — realized that the organization would expand to more than 225 college campuses, 560 chapters and 70,000 members worldwide. Zeta Phi Beta identify problems that concern minorities — problems like juvenile delinquency, education, hunger, homelessness, teen-age pregnancy & Aids.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. the first intercollegiate Greek-letter fraternity established for Black college students, was organized at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, in 1906. The seven visionary founders at Cornell - - - Henry Arthur Callis, Charles H. Chapman, Eugene Kinckle Jones, George B. Kelley, Nathaniel A. Murray, Robert H. Ogle and Vertner W. Tandy - - - labored in years of severe economic struggle and racial conflict in the United States.

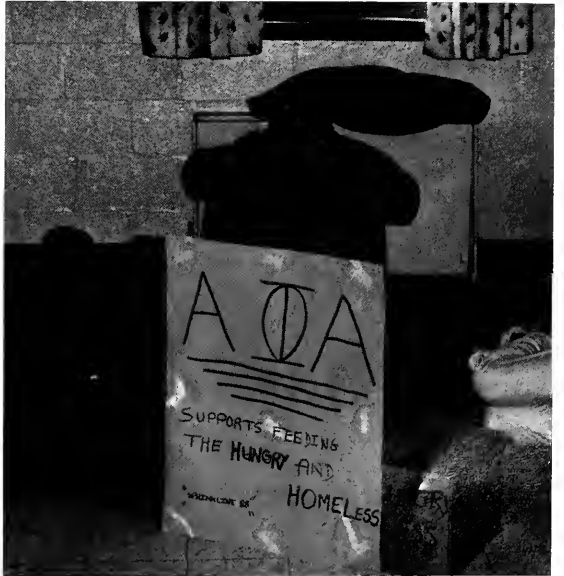

The Fraternity has grown steadily in influence throughout the years. 125,000 men have been initiated into Alpha Phi Alpha since its founding. There are now 350 college chapters, 350 alumni chapters in 44 states and abroad.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

The sorors of Alpha Kappa Alpha, Sorority Inc. founded on Jan. 15, 1908 at Howard University, are women of vision, integrity and dedication who represent every profession. Alpha Kappa Alpha, Sorority Inc. has over 100,00 members, over 800 chapters including international chapters, and is the first female Greek letter organization to be incorporated. The sorority lives by the motto "By culture and by Merit". Their "Sisterhood and Service" has blessed them with sorors distinguished as Marla Gibbs, Congresswoman Cardiss Collins, Constance Baker Motley, Rosa Parks, Coretta Scott King, Maya Angelou, to Gladys Knight and Phylliscia Raschad.

The Panhellenic Council

The Panhellenic Council consists of representatives from each Greek organization on campus. Combined they perform community service as ambassadors of UMES. 4 Ladies (Shawn W., Mycha M., Michelle S., & Patrice) represented the Panhellenic council by taking a Saturday afternoon and painting an Elderly daycare center in Crisfield. Also, the Council donated monies for UMES book scholarships and Princess Anne community projects. Kid's Day was created this year and hopefully will continue in the future with the Princess Anne community. Moreover, Greek Unity was encouraged and formed.

Yeltsin Asks Gorbachev to Resign — Soviet Pres. Mikhail Gorbachev said, Feb. 13, that the nation was not yet ready to give up central economic controls. Boris Yeltsin, president of the Russian Federation, Feb. 19, called on Gorbachev to resign. He criticized the president for wanting to hold on to the old system, for not wanting to grant independence to republics desiring it, and for leading the country to dictatorship under the name of "presidential rule."

As I see the drama of democracy unfolding around the globe, perhaps—perhaps we are closer to that new world than ever before. The future is ours to influence; to shape

President George Bush, announcing a planned unilateral reduction of U.S. nuclear weapons.

Random House Webster's College Dictionary, in a new edition published in 1991

It is only after a great deal of agonizing consideration that I am able to talk to these unpleasant matters to anyone except my closest friends.

Anita Hill, law professor, testifying before the Senate Judiciary Committee in confirmation hearings for Judge Clarence Thomas.

Are you a scorned woman? Do you have a martyr complex? . . . Are you interested in writing a book?

Senator Howell Heflin, questioning Hill.

I have been racking my brains and eating my insides out trying to think of what I could have said or done to Anita Hill to lead her to allege that I was interested in her in more than a professional way . . . Clarence Thomas, in hearings . . .

Women in this country legally have a choice; at least I think they do. I haven't checked the paper today. Murphy Brown, a TV character played by actress Candice Bergen, on abortion.

The liberation of Kuwait has begun. Marlin Fitzwater, White House spokesman, just after seven p.m. on Jan. 16.

He is neither a strategist nor is he schooled in the operational arts, nor is he a tactician, nor is he a general, nor is he a soldier. Other than that, he's a great military man. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, U.S. commander in the gulf war, on Saddam Hussein.

A CRIME OF PASSION WITH NO RESOLUTION

Who pumped nine bullets into 40-year-old suburban Betty Jeanne Solomon the night her grade-school teacher husband had parking-lot sex with his mistress? The mistress herself, said police, who arrested Carolyn Warmus, now 27, for the 1989 murder of her lover's wife in New York's Westchester County.

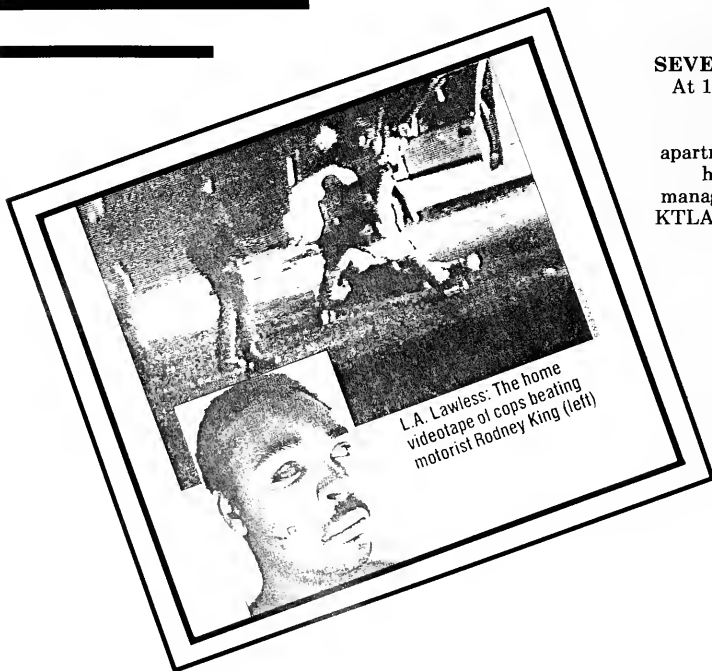

Testimony in the so-called

Fatal Attraction case painted Warmus as so possessive of colleague Paul Solomon, 44, that she killed his wife. The defense stressed the absence of any witness, any murder weapon or any forensic evidence while successfully portraying both Solomons as practiced adulterers. On April 27, after deliberating 12 days, the jury declared itself hung. (One consequence: A book and TV movie on the case were put on hold pending Warmuss's second trial.)

SEVEN MINUTES THAT SHOOK L.A.

At 12:30 A.M. on March 3, George Holliday, 31, was awakened by sirens and a helicopter hovering above his San Fernando Valley apartment. The scene outside caused him to grab his new camcorder. Two days later Holliday, manager of a plumbing business, took his tape to KTLA-TV. The footage of white L.A. cops savagely pummeling prostrate black construction worker Rodney King, 25, quickly brought simmering racial tensions to a boil. The battered victim, Rodney King - never ticketed for the alleged traffic violations that led to his beating - is recuperating in seclusion. According to his attorney, Steve Lerman, the blows to King's head "were so forceful they knocked some fillings out of his teeth." The damage report, according to Lerman: broken bones at the base of King's skull, facial fractures that required surgery, chipped teeth, a severely broken leg and possible damage to the brain and heart.

FROM WORST TO FIRST

America loves an underdog, and Americans love baseball. This was a good year for both. In 1990 the Atlanta Braves and the Minnesota Twins finished last; this year they finished the season in a classic showdown that fans called the greatest World Series ever-five one-run games, three of them stretching into extra innings, four of them won on the game's final pitch. The Twins (celebrating above) took the seventh and deciding game, 1-0 in 10 innings, but even the losers caught the afterglow. Said Braves second baseman Mark Lemke, "The only thing better would have been if we stopped after nine innings and cut the trophy in half."

Men want the same things that women want. Men want to be loved, touched and respected, the same as women. We should appreciate these common threads between us, not just get caught up in all the conflict. Merle Ross, men's conference.

Donald Trump

Ivana Trump, Marla Maples, Rowanne Brewer, Marla Maples, Carla Bruni, Marla Maples, Kim "Alley Cat" Alley, sold the Trump Princess, Marla Maples, Mom gets mugged, Marla Maples. What next for the 45-year-old minimogul?

Malcolm X Hat

Seldom has such a complicated knot of racial politics and hagiographic pride been expressed with such economy. Director Spike Lee's baseball hat emblazoned with a silver X promotes his forthcoming film on Malcolm X.

The Mini-Mag

One person described me as the Boris Yeltsin of American politics. I like that. David Duke, Republican presidential candidate, about a comparison to the Russian president.

He's so cute. How can someone who looks like that be bad? Joann Jernigan, Louisiana voter, on David Duke.

My job is a 7-day-a-week, 24-hour-a-day job . . . I have to be able to communicate. It is in the national interest. John Sununu, then White House Chief of Staff, on why he took a chauffeur-driven government limousine to New York City to attend a stamp auction.

Sununu is living proof that you shouldn't give children their IQ test results because then they go through life thinking they're smart. Edward Rollins, Republican political consultant.

CAL-ASIAN CUISINE, a.k.a. PACIFIC RIM COOKERY. It was the year's best new gourmet trend, and its most renowned pioneer was Los Angeles' superstar chef, Wolfgang Puck. Pacific Rim cuisine—more for dining out than cooking in—features American, chiefly California, staples subtly accented by Oriental herbs and spices such as lemongrass or ginger. The result: dishes that have a Western look but an Eastern aura, like shrimp and papaya salad with Thai peanut dressing.

Departed This World

Colleen Dewhurst, 67. "Her approach to acting was the same as her approach to life: simple and profound," says Candice Bergen.

Redd Foxx departed this world suddenly at age 68. "Redd didn't have to work at being funny," says TV wife Della Reese. "He had a spontaneous effect on people. When God sent us Redd, he sent us a nature-born comic."

Michael Landon, 54, actor, "He was the best at understanding that television is something in people's homes. They form very personal relationships with people they see on the screen. He used that to really connect with people and to touch them." Brandon Tartikoff —

Justice Thurgood Marshall Retires - Thurgood Marshall, the only black ever to serve on the U.S. Supreme Court, announced, June 27, that he would retire when a successor was approved. Marshall, a pioneering civil rights lawyer, had argued the case (Brown vs. Board of Education) before the Supreme Court in 1954 that had ended the "separate but equal" school systems in the U.S. Pres. Lyndon Johnson had nominated him to the high court in 1967. In one dissent he had written, "Power, not reason, is the new currency of this Court's decision-making."

It was an extraordinary performance, almost surreal in the way so weighty a matter was dispatched with such incredible lightness. On Nov. 7, Earvin "Magic" Johnson, one of America's most beloved athletes, called a nationally televised press conference to say he was quitting basketball because he had contracted the virus that inevitably leads to Aids. "Sometimes we think only gay people can get it," said Magic, 32. "Here I am saying it can happen to anybody - even me, Magic Johnson."

The New York Times ran an editorial . . . praising him for providing Aids leadership where George Bush had not.

If it happened to a heterosexual woman who had been with 100 or 200 men, they'd call her a whore and a slut, and the corporation would drop her like a lead balloon. Martina Navratilova, on the outpouring of Johnson support.

THE SILENCE OF THE LAMBS

Behind the mask lurked Hannibal the Cannibal, the year's most memorable screen villain, chillingly concocted by Anthony Hopkins.

It was in June of 1981, on Ward 3B. We saw a young gay man with the most devastating immune deficiency we had ever seen. "We don't know what this is, but we hope we don't ever see another . . ." Samuel Broder, M.D., on first patient ever seen with Aids.

The Jacksons, who proved you can never be too rich, too thin, too bleached, too naked, too . . . Jackson to keep the gossips mum. Just sign a multimedia deal that could bring you a billion (Michael) or a record contract worth $32 million. (Janet) Or pose nude in Playboy (LaToya). Or chastise your bro as "reconstructed, been abducted" in a rap song. (Jermaine to Michael).

BOYZ N THE HOOD is a gripping drama of young black men trying to survive in L.A. gang warfare.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

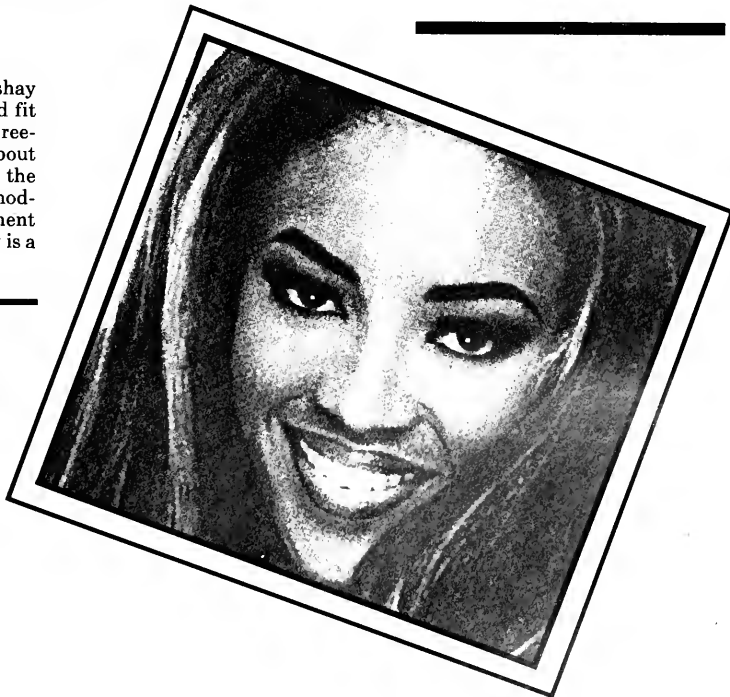

A bookish Belle and her bisonlike beau.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST brilliantly revivifies the grand old story of vanity's folly and love's redemption.

She commands up to $15,000 just to sashay down a Paris runway in an outfit you could fit in a thimble. But, hey, who's counting? Three-quarters legs and one-quarter come-hither pout British-born Naomi Campbell is not only the face of the year, but also the hottest black model since Iman arrived in 1975. For the moment she's keeping the day job, where she already is a superstar.

She was everywhere this year-except, perhaps, on time for her 21st birthday bash last May in New York City, keeping such guests as Madonna and designer Donna Karan cooling their heels. Discovered in London's Covent Garden as a 15-year-old schoolgirl, she now practically lives in the Concorde, stretch limos and the gossip columns, where she's been linked to Mike Tyson and Robert De Niro. "They used to call up asking for a beautiful white model. . . Now they ask for a beautiful model. It just doesn't matter what color you are anymore. If I've had something to do with that change, then I'm really proud of it."

A Tribute To Michelle M. Sewell

HAWKS MESSAGE

UMES Student Newspaper

Michelle M. Sewell was a senior extraordinaire! A sociology major from Silver Springs, Maryland managed to revive a dormant school paper. Without the background, Michelle transformed in to a journalist and produced a publication that affirmed UMES.

Taking a deep breath, Michelle ran articles that brought indictments on Greeks, Administration, and students practicing unsafe sex. Her hope as Editor-In-Chief was to eradicate wrong doings, challenge policies and people, encourage others, enlighten the unenlightened, and turn apathy in to activism. These were her hopes and her dreams. The "Hawks Message" was her vision.

Her dedication expanded the 4-page paper to an 8-page paper. Her persistence and people skills motivated writers to make and sometimes even, beat, deadlines.

Michelle M. Sewell has taught me so much about myself and in general. College for me has been a rewarding experience which I recommend to all of you high school students. As freshmen I was wondering what does UMES have to offer. You may say, it's not large or urban, but just as good as the rough. You must work at gaining knowledge at this university. Unlike many large universities like UMCP, our attributes are not as noticeable, we are somewhat hidden, you must work in trying to find out the advantages of this school, which is rewarding because life is the same way.

Everything that appears to be good is not, as students must realize that Everything in life is not pretty and good. Success takes hard work and endurance. One of the main problems at this university is APATHY. We must be more involved because they're not. We must work hard, which leads to an "I don't care" attitude. As students we must work hard, we must invest in our future. We must work hard and wear our school colors with pride and love them with one another. When we

Editor-In-Chief Of The Hawks Message

From Dr. Hytche to freshman, all have praised Ms. Sewell as being the lifesaver of the "Hawks Message".

This tribute is to salute Ms. Michelle M. Sewell, Editor-In-Chief of the "Hawks Message" as being one of the most prestigious, powerful and practical UMES graduates.

The 1990-91 Year In Review

Perhaps In A Land So Far Away, There Was A School Called UMES. In One Year, The School And Its Students Went Through Drastic Changes Of Their Constant Fantasies. One Can Remember As They Climbed The Beanstalk...

- + The efficiencies were delayed in fully opening; students had to live in hotels off-campus.
- + The school's population topped over 2,000 students
- + UMES became the fastest black growing university in the nation.
- + ORL fired half a dozen of their student employees.
- + Ms. Messick resigned quietly one spring day.
- + Dean Dowery retired in June 91.
- + An alleged fight of the Kappa's and the Que's.
- + A 357 magnum was found during a riot outside of the SDC.
- + Pledging was abolished on campus (smile).
- + Scandals II & III hit the campus by storm.
- + Delray Wylie ran through a party nude.
- + A student security staff was formed to assist in handling parties and other school functions.
- + A student hit another student in the head with a pipe.
- + A security guard hit a student in the mouth and knocked him unconscious.
- + Dr. Hytche held all-male and all-female meetings on campus.
- + The biggest drug bust in Somerset County history was at UMES.

- + Two students were charged with Kingpin charges.
- + Gospel Choir had their ups and downs, ins and arounds.
- + Lalah Hathaway got cancelled because she wanted a blank check. SGA banned her.
- + X-Clan concert got cancelled because a group member was shot in Detroit.
- + Our first Aids Awareness concert on campus.
- + The gate went around the efficiencies making it Cell Block E.
- + The visiting Alpha's broke a gym door during Homecoming.
- + The Kappa's came through a window during a Step Show.
- + No one put in an application to run for SGA 91-92 office.
- + Our young black men had to withdraw from school to fight the war.
- + Marva Banks came back to campus strutting!
- + Over 50 ECI students were honored at the Honors Convocation.
- + Two university employees were about to fight in JT Williams.
- + Keith Sewell gets a record contract after several winnings at the New York Apollo.
- + The tentative '91 graduation list had over 2 dozen seniors from last year.
- + UMES hired a new basketball coach who was a flop!
- + The Salisbury Centre opened giving students more opportunity to be in debt.
- + A student informs the school paper that he had Aids.

As You Reflect Back Be Truthful To Yourself. Find Who You Are And What You Are About. Where Are You Going And What Is The Goal At Hand? The Fairy Godmother Has Blessed UMES. Let It Be Known That Struggles And Hardships Help Us Grow. As Hours Are Left For Many Of Us Before The Clock Strikes Twelve . . . Will You Find Your Glass Slipper In The Nick Of Time?

Yearbook Dedication

The 1990-91 Hawk Yearbook "We Are Family" Is Dedicated To Two People Who Give So Much To UMES. Both Taught Me So Much About Myself. They Taught Me That Life Is Out There For The Grasping. They Taught Me What It Meant To Be Professional In The Midst Of Chaos.

This Book Is Dedicated To: Ms.
Marian Birkhead &

Mr. Alverne Chesterfield

She Taught Me Patience. He Taught Me Reality. She Taught Me Faith. He Taught Me Control. She Taught Me Courage. He Taught Me Persistence.

They Taught Me Me!

God Loves You And Marian Loves You. It's Nice To Be Important, But It's More Important To Be Nice. Thank You Marian For All The Encouragement Through The Storm. Thank You Chet For All The Struggles That Helped Me Build Spirit. Godspeed To Both Of You!

The Ella Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center lawn was the setting for the May 5th graduation ceremonies of the Class of 1992. Dr. Clayton Yeutter, keynote speaker addressed the graduates. Roger W. Davis, Senior class president followed with his "We Are Bad" speech, which eventually was banned from the UMES archives. His Excellency Paul Biya and Dr. Ivar Holmberg were presented with honorary doctorate degrees. Marcia Burnett walked away with $5500 in grants and honors. Following the speeches, presentations, and musical selections by the Jazz band and Gospel choir, diplomas were presented by Dr. William P. Hytche

Dear Hawk Family,

You have come the the Editor's page of the 1990-91 Hawk Yearbook. The 1990-91 Hawk Yearbook, "We Are Family" was comprised of 176 pages, 937 pictures and over 1,000 hours of work. (I spent more time on this book than on my Masters degree.) The book copy is set in Style 47 - Benguiat Book 12 point face. Portrait and candid photography were provided by Michelle Demanche and Frank White. The Hawk Yearbook was published by Jostens Printing and Publishing Division, 401 Science Park Road, P.O. Box 297, State College, PA, 16801. Additional photography was done by Ms. Michelle Sewell, Mr. Alverne W. Chesterfield, and Mr. Roger W. Davis.

This issue was completed on the first day of August, nineteen hundred and ninety-two in Baltimore, MD.

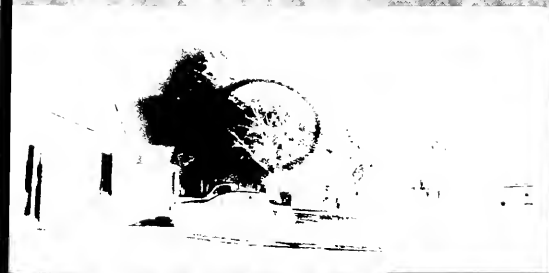

Special thanks goes to Mr. Frank White, Ms. Michelle Demanche, and Mr. James White, Jr. who worked so patiently with me. Dr. Hytche please give them all a raise!

And special thanks goes to my mother who relinquished her basement an entire year for this yearbook.

Godspeed to all of you - to those this book inspires - to those this book shocks - and to those this book pisses off, that's what being a family is all about.

Every Photo Album has a last page. I've tried to fill our book with as many images, thoughts, and feelings about 1991 as we could cram into 175 pages. I hope that our fellow Hawks look through the book not as just a record of what WAS, but as a family legacy - a gift of "what was" to "what is yet to be." I have put a lot of myself into these pages - my time, joy, sorrow, creativity, frustration, anger, hope. Enjoy!
